I am sincerely sorry about what I posted towards Adfree and Flork. I took things way too far, and enforced my worldview on other people too harshly- when it shouldn't have been enforced at all. Whether the intent was there or not, I hurt people, and I'm sincerely sorry about that. I never should have posted that clip out of context, and I never should have made that post calling out Adfree and Flork. It was a roleplay, and just because my feelings were hurt does not excuse me pulling the rug from somebody else's feet. I'm sorry to the Minecraft SMP server members for toppling over a supportive and fun environment that was supposed to build relationships, not break them. I'm sorry to the Minecraft SMP Staff and Owner for bringing a nonissue to their attention, and then bringing it to the public's eyes.

However- I never did any of the things Apollo is accusing me of, and here is evidence proving Apollo has been slandering me for years.

Original Document-
Content Warning: Suicide

Over the past year, there have been multiple ongoing misunderstandings and claims made about me behind the scenes that I feel like I need to address openly. My goal is not to attack anybody- and please, do not direct your harassment at anybody. Nobody needs to go through that. I aim to clarify what happened from my perspective, correct misinformation, and explain why I am speaking up now.

I want to start by acknowledging this situation began with a very painful moment in my life, and that I made many mistakes along the way. I am not without fault- however, I also believe the narrative about what happened has become inaccurate, and some of the claims being spread about me are just... untrue.

In early May of 2023, I was going through an intense period of depression. On May 6th, I made a suicide attempt. I reached out to a close friend at the time, who was ApolloMythos, by sending a message that I should not have sent, a suicide note. In hindsight, this was a serious misjudgment on my part- and I fully understand receiving a message like that can be distressing.

After surviving the attempt, I panicked and tried to have the email deleted by reaching out to her partner. Regardless of what had happened with the message, both Apollo and her partner initially had shown me support.

The day after, while still recovering mentally as well as physically, I joined Apollo's group server to seek social interaction. During this, things became tense, and shortly after, I found myself blocked by Apollo, her partner, and two mutual friends. I had only shared my attempt with Apollo, so the situation was extremely confusing and painful.

I want to be clear: I did reach out from two alternate accounts. This was not meant to harass anybody, I was overwhelmed, confused, and trying to understand what had happened- and why somebody I had trusted had cut contact with no explanation. I was later told it was "implied' she needed space. As someone on the autism spectrum, implied communication is very hard for me to interpret, and I had previously explained this to Apollo.

Shortly after this, I began hearing people believed I faked my suicide attempt. Considering that Apollo was the only person I had shared that information with, this was shocking to hear.

The combination of being blocked by close friends, being told I was lying about a very real attempt, and being socially isolated while already in crisis, led to another attempt on May 9th. This time I required hospitalization, including medical care and a stay in the psych ward. I experienced temporary hypoxia-related speech issues, and I have hospital records that confirm this.

Original Document Ends Here, not including screenshot evidence

Over a year later, I became aware that allegations were still being made about me. Specifically claims that I had posted revenge porn, or doxxed Apollo. I want to make this absolutely clear: I never had access to anyone's personal information, legal name, or address. I was never sent explicit photos. I did not post or distribute anything of that nature. These claims have had heavy consequences for me, including being blacklisted from opportunities. When I attempted to clarify the situation with the company involved, I was told the screenshots were fake, and I was threatened with legal action. When I asked for proof that certain deleted messages could be recovered: I did not recieve any.

Also, a former member of the company, Hades, contacted me from an alternate account to explain they were not allowed to speak with me because of the situation, even further suggesting internal communication was influenced by misinformation.

I've stayed quiet for a long time because I was scared, and because I was threatened with legal consequences. Now that I understand those threats had no legal basis, and that misinformation is still circulating, I feel I have the right to defend myself and present the truth as I experienced it. I have documentation to support my hospitalization, proof of conversations, and additional context that I am willing to share. My hope is not to reignite conflict, but to advocate for myself, correct false claims, and provide clarity to this situation that has affected my reputation and mental well-being.

Thank you.
I have no doubt in my mind that Apollo has told the company these lies, but I do not have evidence of this.
But the fact that I was very good friend with Hades and then all of a sudden stopped messaging me after I did pixel art of Apollo (this was before I knew who she was), makes me very upset.
I would like to avoid making this public, as despite Apollo thinking that I "did it for attention" (according to old dms), I don't like people knowing I tried to take my life.

TrayLegacy Today at 8:37 AM

Hello,
I am aware that Apollo has been spreading rumors about me. I would like to discuss these- as they are false, and I have screenshot evidence to back it up. I know the Apollo is saying I faked my suicide attempt that happened over a year ago, however, I have hospital records indicating this is not the case: and screenshots showing she spread rumors about me.

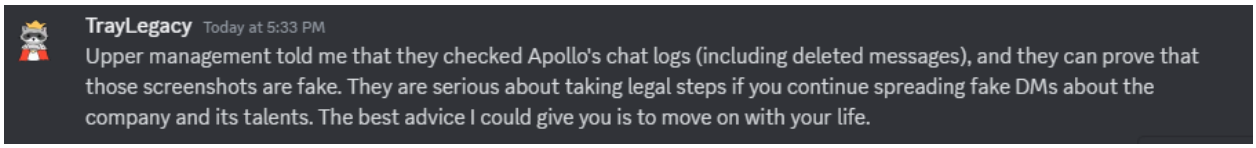
Hello,
After an internal investigation, we have determined that you have been circulating fake dm screenshots featuring our talent Apollo. This constitutes fraud and defamation, and it is a serious legal matter.
Apollo is a character owned by our company. This means that you are not only defaming the talent behind Apollo, but our entire company as well.
We demand that you cease and desist immediately with this unacceptable behavior.
If this continues in any manner, we will protect ourselves and our talent to the fullest extent of the law.
Sincerely,
Team Mythos



TrayLegacy Today at 5:33 PM
Upper management told me that they checked Apollo's chat logs (including deleted messages), and they can prove that those screenshots are fake. They are serious about taking legal steps if you continue spreading fake DMs about the company and its talents. The best advice I could give you is to move on with your life.

IF. You can prove that you can recover old deleted screenshots. Then I'll admit I was in the wrong, and apologize.
@BunnyAlisu but i talked to hades, to get hades alt, hylo
TrayLegacy Today at 5:46 PM
for me to do this i would need to have access to that account which i do not beccasue that is her personal
BunnyAlisu Today at 5:46 PM
no- this happened on hades account hades
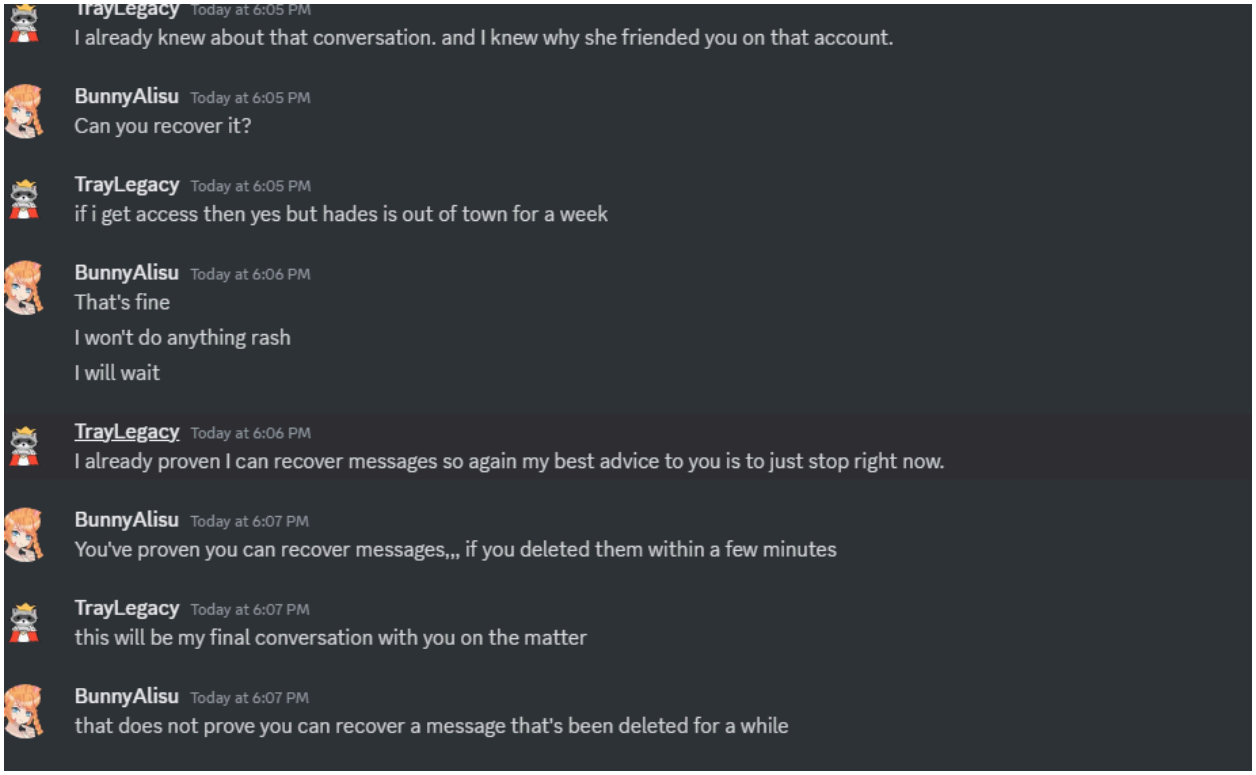
not
I talked to Hades on her Hades account, we had a conversation. In this conversation, she gave me her alt account information,
We deleted this conversation.
But. If you really can recover messages, you should see it.



TrayLegacy Today at 6:05 PM
I already knew about that conversation. and I knew why she friended you on that account.
BunnyAlisu Today at 6:05 PM
Can you recover it?
TrayLegacy Today at 6:05 PM

BunnyAlisu Today at 6:06 PM

You've proven you can recover messages,,, if you deleted them within a few minutes
TrayLegacy Today at 6:07 PM
this will be my final conversation with you on the matter

From what I researched at least

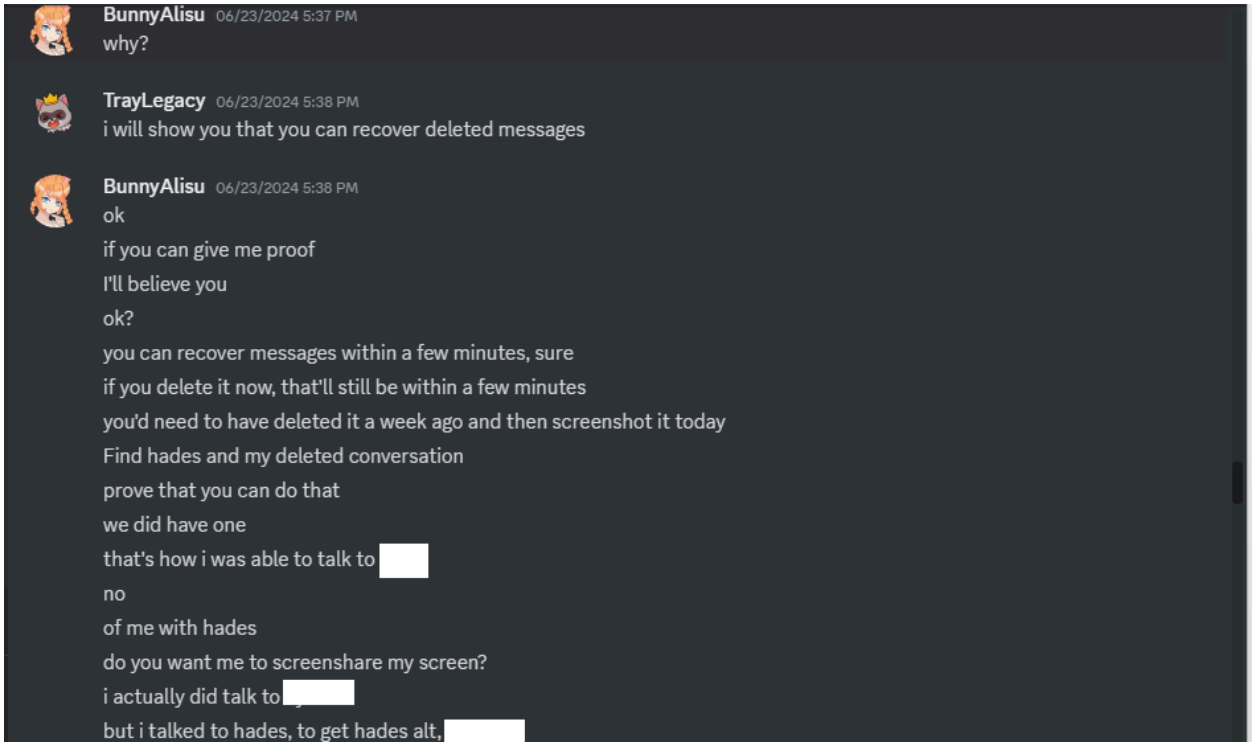
Wait. So. You have no problem if I post the whole story that happened, with evidence, about [redacted] saying [redacted]'s Apollo, as long as I don't post that one "fake" screenshot, right?
If that's the case, I just will remove the "fake" screenshot from the list of evidence.
I still have the [redacted] screenshot
6:12 PM that's pretty incriminating
It shows that Apollo told management about me.

TrayLegacy Today at 6:15 PM
so you wanna dox people

BunnyAlisu Today at 6:15 PM
that's... not doxxing?
Doxxing is spreading their address
name
personal info
irl info
I'm holding her responsible for her actions
She lied to the company and ruined my friendship with hades



BunnyAlisu 06/23/2024 5:37 PM
why?

Why are you posting this again? I am trying to understand here, but tbh I dont.

BunnyAlisu Today at 10:28 PM
I recieved more evidence
A screenshot where she is clearly spreading rumros about me

Today at 10:30 PM
Ok? And did you reach back out to the management and show them? This is not just a random person this is a company that has already given you a cease and desist. And youre posting about it again after that. You have opened yourself to legal action.

BunnyAlisu Today at 10:31 PM
I did- but they have no ground to sue me. Fraud and defamation would only be if the screenshots were fake.

Today at 10:32 PM
If you have a line of communication with the company and they have issues a legal statment to you you have to go back to that line of communitcation. You are in direct vilation of it regardless of validity of the screenshot. Not to mention their claim is you faking screenshots which only makes it look worse for you.
and the time of it works VERY poorly in your favor

BunnyAlisu Today at 10:33 PM
How tf would i fake screenshots 💀 I have NO conversations with her (edited)

BunnyAlisu Today at 10:38 PM
Why is it so bad for me to publically address what she's doing to me?
She is the one who started this by falsifying rumors about me and slandering my name. I am defending myself
And starting a lawsuit requires money to hire a lawyer. There are no public defenders for civil suits.

Today at 10:41 PM
Yes and there are people who talk about me too. Its like that here. But dragging all of twitter and the vtuber sphere into all of this one opens you up to MORE rumors not less. You are bringing the whole world into a personal matter that should be addressed in private or through legal means. And a written statement of C&D is binding. Same as if you tell someone 'Do not contact me again or I will seek legal action' is.

BunnyAlisu Today at 10:42 PM
So I'm just supposed to ignore her actively trying to sabatoge my friendships?

Today at 10:43 PM
It sucks but yes. The way you are handling it is only going to make it worse not better. You are giving them fuel.

BunnyAlisu Today at 10:43 PM
Which several she's SUCCEEDED in destroying

Today at 10:43 PM
If she did they werent friends in the first place

BunnyAlisu Today at 10:44 PM
I refuse to stand idly by while somebody attempts to ruin my sole source of income as a disabled person.

Today at 10:44 PM

That is a bold statement.

BunnyAlisu Today at 10:44 PM

It's a TRUE statement.

Today at 10:44 PM

with the evidence you have it doesnt show that

BunnyAlisu Today at 10:44 PM

So, attempting to sabatoge my streaming career doesn't equal trying to sabotage my income?

Networking is vital to grow.

Today at 10:46 PM

You dont have evidence of that, you have one screenshot of her waring one person to be careful because of what they believe you did to them. That doesnt constitute career sabotage

BunnyAlisu Today at 10:46 PM

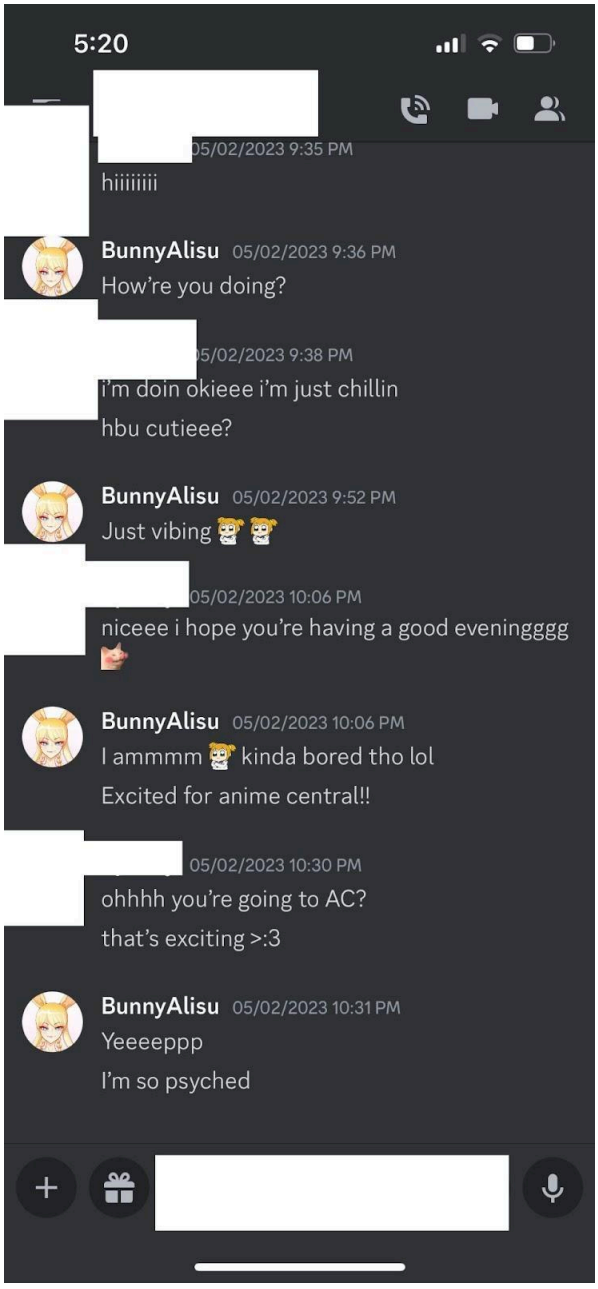
But they are LIES.

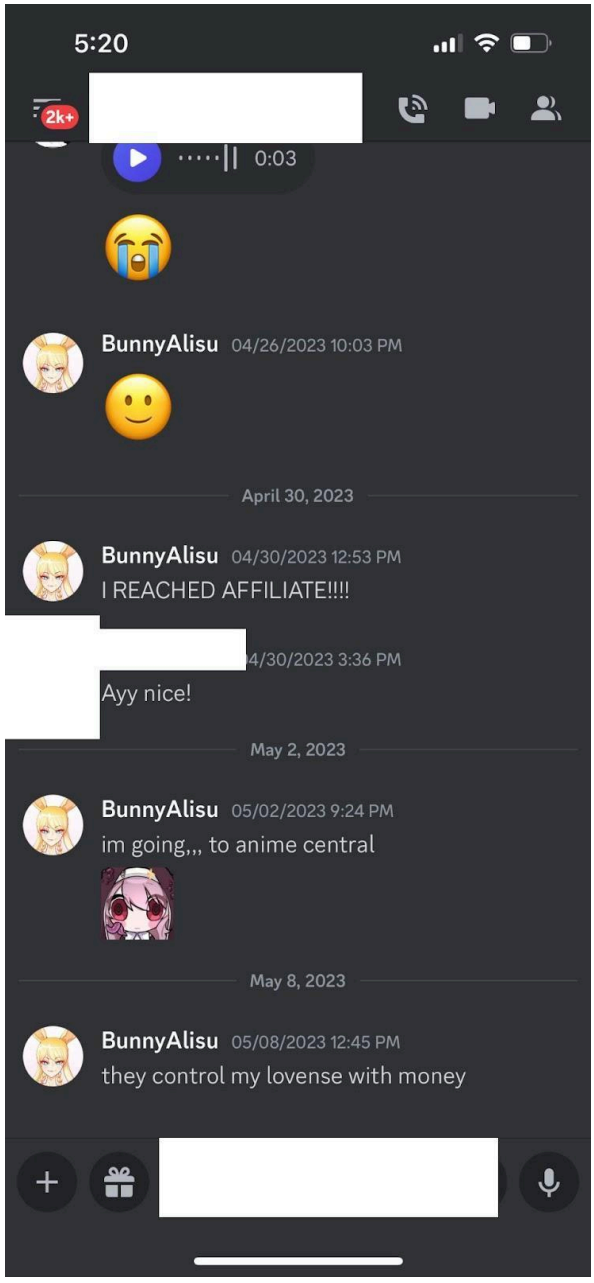
I've sent her proof that I was hospitalized.

So she is knowingly engaging in slander.

I've even posted my proof PUBLICALLY. MULTIPLE TIMES.

My last conversations with my mutual friends that blocked me after Apollo blocked me.





My DMs with a mutual friend of Apollo and I, who was told by her “mods” “incriminating things” about me.

That was a mod decision. I do apologize about that but due to other accounts of others experiences my mod team felt it was best.
BunnyAlisu 05/15/2023 4:59 PM

Nobody bothered asking about my side. After my attempt everybody blocked me
